According to the police, the child ran from behind two parked cars into the path of the Short auto. The driver reported that he drew to a full stop and swerved to the left but was unable to avoid striking the boy.

Following an examination by Dr. Douw S. Meyers, the child was admitted to the Kingston Hospital for observation and treatment.

YOUR NEW REGULAR ARMY WANTS YOU TO KNOW HOW VOLUNTEERS ARE SELECTED

Would it surprise you to know that only about 60 out of every 100 volunteers for the new Regular Army can measure up to today's requirements for a soldier?

Only the top 60% of American youth—mentally, morally and physically—can pass the rigid tests.

There are reasons for this which your Army wants you to know:

- The men we send overseas must represent you to millions of people who are struggling towards true democracy. Your soldiers are their contacts with our way of life. They must be typical of our best.
- The truly modern Army requires a far higher type of soldier than ever before in history. The wide use of scientific material—advanced weapons and the broad and continuing program of research and development—necessitates a superior man. Your Army must lead the world in the caliber of its men if it is to provide adequate defense in the atomic age.

These are reasons why Army enlistment standards today are higher than ever before. They are reasons why your new Regular Army, although comparatively small in size—is performing its world-wide duties with record efficiency.

In Japan, for example, ours is the smallest occupation force per capita in world history—yet there is no record of greater achievement in such a short space of time.

If you can measure up to these standards, you will find enlistment in the new Regular Army a good career. You will live and work with friends whom you will value always. You will have opportunity for travel and high adventure, and a chance to qualify for Officer Candidate Schools and Technical Schools. Above all, you will have the deep satisfaction of doing an important job for your country in a time of great need.

Ask at any U. S. Army Recruiting Station for full details on the many opportunities open to men who volunteer for three years.

Dive Bombing
Gorham, Me., June 17 (AP)—When Minnie, a cat, cuffed a baby robin, she found that her grounded prey had plenty of "air power." ### Hungry Hound

Chicago, June 17 (AP)—A Great Dane has taken a big bite of the food budget at the Albany Park police station.

Policeman Pete Snyder, who found the dog in a wooded area and brought it to the station to feed it, said:

Police hope the owner claims the big dog soon.

Birds Sank Ships

In ancient days, migrating birds crossed the Mediterranean in such numbers that they sank sailing vessels by settling on them to rest their wings.

State Oats, Barley

Yield Cut by Rains

Albany, N. Y., June 17 (AP)—Heavy spring rains have cut the expected yield of oats and barley in New York state to about one-third of that grown last year, the State Agriculture Department estimates. On the other hand, the department said yesterday in a federal-state report, pasture conditions are good and winter wheat is expected to double last year's crop if growing conditions remain favorable until harvest. Fruit crop prospects were described as satisfactory despite delays in development because of the cool, rainy weather.

A 3.5 per cent increase in commercial milk production during May, over the same month last year, was reported but output of eggs dropped nine per cent below May, 1946.

The boost in milk was credited to "excellent pastures" and "heavy concentrate feeding." The decrease in egg production was attributed to a reduction in the number of laying hens.

The department said the bloom of most fruit was heavy this spring but there had been only short periods for pollination.

The weather delayed development of apple orchards and interfered with spray programs, while some frost damage to apples, peaches and pears was reported in the Hudson valley. Estimates of 1947 fruit production included: Peaches, 1,458,000 bushels, 87 per cent of last year. Pears, 1,180,000, nearly double 1946. Total motor vehicle registrations exceeded 80,000,000 for the first time in 1939.

Western Rodeo Is Colorful Event at Lake Hill Arena

Woodstock, June 17—In spite of threatening skies and chilly weather, about 700 persons took their places in the grandstands at the Lake Hill Arena on Sunday afternoon for the opening rodeo of the season for Calico Stock and Guest Ranch.

Several Woodstock painters were seen in the stands making pencil sketches before the show began. In the field behind the grandstand, "Butterscotch" Bud Nelson's palomino trick horse created much interest as he limbered up with a few dance steps, under the direction of Bud's five-year-old daughter, Margaret Dolores.

Just before the grand entry, Jack Ahern of Calico who was the official announcer for the show, gave a short history of rodeo, saying that the annual round up of cattle for branding and separation, caused a great deal of rivalry among the cowboys and eventually the contests began.

favorite mounts were seen in the grand entry, namely, Winsley, Mara and Harrison Muller, Wilbur Mundy, and Pete Cooper. Others included in this parade, most of whom were contestants, were Tom Brown and Jack Ahern, owners of Calico; Red Sloan, Rip Williams, Eileen Ahern, Irene Brown, Joe Ferrenti, Doreen Walter, C. J. Walter, Betty Ford, and Johnny Mandrake, all of Calico, and Earl Walter and Dotty Walter, Calgary, Canada. Jean Vandervlyn, New Paltz, Bud Nelson, Cody, Wyoming; V. Finnegan, Tucson, Arizona; and Hub Hubbell, Red Lodge, Montana. Kingston too was well represented by John Roosa, Ferd Gildersleeve, Rony Shapiro, Jim McCabe and Gene VanGassebeck.

Caught in Chute
Widowmaker, one of the horses used in the first section of the bronc riding was so anxious for the fray that he caught his foot in the chute gate slats as he was about to be released. Ed Chavez was nearly talking photographs. One spectator was heard to call out, "I hope nothing happens to my jewelry" apropos of the fact that Ed will, quite jewelry-making at the Guild during the summer sessions.

Widowmaker was freed without too much trouble but it was thought this incident somewhat dimmed his spirit and Rip Williams, newly arrived from California, had little trouble in staying on for the required time. Others participating in this event were Earl Walter and Hub Hubbell.

Exciting Moment
There was a tense moment during the wild steer wrestling contest when Tom Brown's horse fell over a steer which had stumbled. In a matter of seconds, however, rider, horse and steer were back on the job and a sigh of relief was heard from the stands.

Nelson's Horse Makes Hit

Bud Nelson and his trick horse Butterscotch made a great hit with the spectators. Besides his dancing, stretching, and painting, Butterscotch answered questions by shaking his head. When asked if he would like to pull a wagon, there was no mistaking his determined "no." While Bud and Butterscotch dramatized the famous story of injured mount and rider assisting each other to their destination, one well-known Woodstocker, and animal lover, so touched by the scene, was observed to be silently weeping.

The cowboys were obviously the masters in the second section of bronc riding. In order to qualify in this event, it is necessary to stay on for 10 seconds. Sounds easy, perhaps, but anyone witnessing the bucking and kicking soon realizes that it takes an expert cowboy to handle such an outlaw. In this event, Tom Brown, Vincent Finnegan, Red Sloan and Hub Hubbell proved their ability. Tom Brown, who is no doubt the favorite cowboy in these parts, received enthusiastic applause as he mastered "Hell-to-Set" for his 10 seconds.

Stock Arrives Late
The horses and cattle used in the show did not arrive at Calico until Saturday night which accounts for the lethargy displayed by the calves in the roping contest, and some of the steers in the wrestling contest.

Rip Williams of Monarch Pictures, Hollywood, Calif., entertained by singing a few western tunes. Rip is busy these days entertaining guests at Calico where he has received the title of "Calico's Singing Cowboy."

The spectators applauded long and hard for the skill shown in the performance of the most difficult feat by Jean Vandervlyn of New Paltz, riding Nigger, and Bud Nelson riding Butterscotch. Trick and fancy riding was originated by the Cossacks in Russia, but the cowboys, not wishing to be outdone soon perfected their own brand of this type of riding.

Exciting Moment
There was a tense moment during the wild steer wrestling contest when Tom Brown's horse fell over a steer which had stumbled. In a matter of seconds, however, rider, horse and steer were back on the job and a sigh of relief was heard from the stands.

Those participating in the western stock horse class were Rony Shapiro, Joe McNeary, Jim McCabe and Gene VanGassebeck. Men and mounts gave a beautiful exhibition of horsemanship.

Because of rain, the show scheduled for Saturday night had to be called off, but Calico Ranch will continue to have rodeos throughout the summer, the dates of which will be announced.

There was plenty of excitement and good riding throughout the show and as one observer in the grandstand said "the only thing that seems to upset these cowboys is losing their hats."

The judges for the rodeo were C. J. Walter, Calico Ranch, John Roosa, Kingston, and Ferd Gildersleeve, Kingston. Al Meyers of Calico Ranch was the timekeeper.

Library Officers Are Chosen; Year's Reports Submitted

Woodstock, June 17—Highlights of the annual meeting of the Woodstock Library Association Thursday evening were the report by Librarian Alice Thompson, the suggestion that the library be made the Literary Center of the township and the election of officers by the board of trustees.

Mrs. Thompson, who has served for many years, cited the increase in the circulation of volumes over 1946 and said many of the books received throughout the year were gifts.

The Library Afternoons held at various times throughout the year had formed the basis for the development of the library as a literary center in Woodstock.

Van Wageningen Is President

Following the adjournment of the annual meeting, the board of trustees held a meeting to elect officers and trustees for the current fiscal year. Those elected are: Walter S. Van Wageningen, president; Mrs. Norman T. Boggs, vice-president; Mrs. Warren Rutty, elected as secretary; Norman Cole, treasurer. There were five trustees to be elected this year, three of whom were re-elected and are Miss Francis Rogers, Mrs. Julia Leyscraft, and Norman Cole. The new trustees elected are Morris Klein and Mrs. Paul Perlman.

Appointments of chairman of standing committees include Mrs. Joseph Friedberg, extension committee; Mrs. Paul Perlman, publicity; George Neher, administrative; Miss Stuart Grant, membership; Miss Francis Rogers, books; Morris Klein, finance, and Mrs. Sara Middendorff, nominations. Henry M. Robinson is chairman of literary activities.

Mrs. Julia Leyscraft presided at the meeting.

Treasurer's Report
The treasurer's report was submitted by Walter S. Van Wageningen for the fiscal year beginning January 1, 1946, and ending January 1, 1947. The budget set up for the year was $3,000. Of that amount, $100 was received from town taxes, $100 in state aid, and membership dues of $1,225. Contributions from school districts in the township of Woodstock were $160. These contributions are used only for the purchase of children's books. A large portion of the funds raised at the annual fair are used for the expenses of the library. The disbursements included $523 for books, $1,600 salary for librarian and assistant, and $400 for maintenance charges. In addition to these major expenses, there were other miscellaneous expenses.

Extension Work Progresses

Mrs. Jo Friedberg, chairman of the extension committee, outlined the work she and her group are doing in the outlying districts of the township. The work of this committee is very important because through it, residents who find it difficult to come to the library, are enabled to secure the books of their choice at the school houses in their districts on regularly scheduled days. This service is no doubt responsible for the decided increase in the number of adult readers outside the village of Woodstock. The summer schedule of this committee is now being planned and will be announced.

The Standing Book Committee was reported as doing an excellent job in spite of its budget handicap. Miss Francis Rogers, chairman of this committee, made the report.

The Woodstock Library is open Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday afternoons from 2 until 6 o'clock.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acid and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up at night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 million of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Following is part of the official sixth annual report of the Ulster County Committee for Planned Parenthood as read by Mrs. William F. Miller in the absence of Mrs. Stuyvesant Broadhead, secretary for the past year.

"During the year 1946-1947, eight meetings of the executive board were held with an average of nine members present.

"The year's work was chiefly concerned with the national fund-raising drive, in which the local committee participated under the leadership of Mrs. Myron Teller. This was held during the month of February with a dinner for the workers, February 10 at the Governor Clinton Hotel to start the drive.

"Mrs. Maud Rogers of the state league and Mrs. A. Childs of the national committee attended the November meeting to give aid and advice on plans for the drive.

"During the year the clergyman's committee held two meetings. Rev. Arthur Oudenout is chairman of this committee.

"The medical advisory board held one meeting at which two new members, Dr. Douw Myers and Dr. Alfred Harger were elected. The medical board approved the suggested recommendations submitted by Mrs. Wood.

"Other activities of the year included a rummage sale in October to raise funds needed for redecorating the center; the appointment of Mrs. John Kingsbury to the national field committee and the election of Mrs. Wood as a member of the state executive committee; and the recent investigation and employing of Mrs. Carleton Taylor of Port Ewen as a part-time social worker.

"A tea for the workers on the drive planned for April 22 at the home of Mrs. Wood had to be cancelled due to illness of our chairman.

"The local committee was represented at the Ulster County Fair in Kingston, August 21-24, 1946; the regional meeting in Poughkeepsie, in the fall; the state and national annual meeting in New York January 20 and the regional meeting in Albany, May 7.

CONCERNING MUSIC AT CHURCH WEDDINGS

I am glad to quote the following advice sent me by a member of the Central California Chapter of the American Guild of Organists:

"A church wedding is a religious ceremony. Therefore, the music at a church wedding should reflect and enhance the religious character of the occasion.

"Both organists and ministers have a responsibility of guidance toward more appropriate music.

Therefore, both should discuss the music with the bride and groom as the wedding is being planned.

"If the bride and groom want music which would be out of place in a church, it is suggested that such music be used at the wedding reception.

"To permission of the regular organist of the church must be secured before a guest organist is asked to play for the ceremony."

"Also, I might emphasize an important detail—one which the organists themselves are unable to put forward—the hardship endured by the church organist because too many people think his fee is included in charges made for the use of the church. In a few large churches he may be a full-time employee, but in the average church he and the singers are performing an extra duty beyond the regular demand of their positions and they ought to be paid accordingly.

Details of an Anniversary Celebration

Dear Mrs. Post: A Mr. and Mrs. Lucky are entertaining informally but inviting many friends, to their 25th wedding anniversary. Their original attendees will be with them on this occasion. There will be present several brothers and sisters and their husbands and wives. Who should stand in the receiving line?

Answer: Mrs. Lucky stands first, Mr. Lucky next, the maid of honor next and then however many bridesmaids may be present. There should be no others receiving with them. Best man and any ushers who are present, as well as members of the family, talk with the guests and make them feel welcomed.

When Shower Is Given

Dear Mrs. Post: How soon may a shower be given to a bride-to-be?

Answer: As soon as some definite plan has been made for the wedding.

Everyone enjoys a "housewarming" or "open house." Mrs. Post's leaflet, "Housewarmings and Surprise Parties," gives you ideas for writing the invitations. To obtain a copy, send 5 cents in coin and a stamped self-addressed envelope to her, c/o this paper, P. O. Box 98, Station G, New York 19, N. Y.

Financial and Commercial

New York, June 17 (AP)—The stock market presented a tired appearance today and price changes either way were negligible.

A mild retreat at the opening was succeeded by slow improvement, led by some steels and motors, which succeeded in reducing declines or translating them into advances. This took place, however, in the slowest trading in about a week. Near the fourth hour plus and minus signs were well scattered.

While general expectation of some corrective move in the wake of recent climbs was reported by commission houses, selling pressure proved relatively light. The "thin" market in several issues accentuated shifts in trends. Uncertain prospects regarding strike possibilities restricted enthusiasm.

Better performers included Chrysler, General Motors, Youngstown Sheet, International Harvester, North American, Dow Chemical, du Pont, Chesapeake & Ohio and United Aircraft. Lagging telephone (at a low 1947 low), U. S. Rubber, Douglas Aircraft, Johns-Manville, Owens-Illinois, Great Northern preferred, Texas Co., Standard Oil (N. J.) and General Electric.

Bonds were mixed and commodities improved.

Records A.R. Set

Albany, N. Y., June 17 (AP)—New Yorkers who sweltered last week in "record-breaking" heat shivered today when the mercury tumbled to new lows. Records fell at Albany and Buffalo as overnight lows ranged from 39 at Rome to 60 at New York city. Buffalo's early morning 45 was two degrees under the previous June 17 low, set in 1871. Albany's 44 topped a 72-year-old mark by a degree. Syracuse had 45, equaling the 1917 mark.

Peekskill Nips Dodgers in Tenth 4-3, "Booster Night" at 8:30

Locals Rally With 3 in Ninth But Lose Out in Extra Inning

Every so often in the life of every team there crops up a ball game that it can't beg, borrow or steal. The first place Dodgers encountered one of those enigmas last night at municipal stadium and proceeded to drop a 4-3 decision to the Peekskill Highlanders in 10 innings, the first extra inning affair of the home season.

The loss counted a full game from the Kingston lead and put Manager Scherger's troupe in a belligerent mood for tonight's "Merchant's Booster Night" fracas with Peekskill. The contest is scheduled for 8:30 p. m., preceded by a program of field events at 8:15.

Peekskill led 3-0 when Kingston came to bat in the ninth last night, but pitcher Fred Francello had been living on borrowed time and a couple of quick thrusts accomplished his long overdue demise.

Pitcher Ken Braun and Brian Kerr drew successive walks and Francello got the hook when he plunked Kitzos in the backside, loading the bases.

Snappy Double Play
Walt Kowalski, who grabbed a horse collar for himself rifled a torrid grounder to third base. A foot either way and it would have sailed into left field but it happened to streak squarely at third baseman Lukasiuk who nabbed it in self defense and started a snappy double play via second.

Grosso scored on the twin killing but later events proved it was the turning point of the game for Wiley Williams shot a clothesline single to left and that drifted through De Tola's legs for a three-base error and a 2-3 ball game.

Alton Gilbert relieved Braun and was entrusted with the responsibility of holding off the Highlanders while the locals picked up a run. It just wasn't to be. With one out in the tenth, Kropf lined a single to right field and Antonetz let it get away for an extra base. Jok walked but the threat appeared to be snuffed out when Wiley Williams smothered Hagan's line smash over first base and narrowly missed doubling Jok. Along came Stouse, a portly relief hurler, and a sharp single to center and Peekskill was in front 4-3.

Wasted Opportunities
Francello, Peekskill starter, had an uncanny knack of getting out of trouble. He was picked for his six of the first eight stanzas but never doled out more than one a frame. Orteman was thrown out by Francello on a close play in the fourth and it created quite a ruckus with base umpire, Warren.

Later developments proved it was a costly decision against the Dodgers as Scherger followed with a walk and Antonetz singled. Corrigan grounded out to end the frame.

Braun walked and Kerr singled to open the fifth and then languished while Kitzos, Kowalski and Williams went out in order.

The Highlanders appeared docile enough against Lefty Ken Braun, the first five men going out in order. Kropf slashed a double to center and Jok singled him home in the second. Hagan got a good piece of the ball and was relieved on a nice running catch by Brian Kerr. A walk, wild pitch and Long's single made it 2-0 in the second and in the third Hagan strolled, raced to third on Braun's wild pitch and rode home on Francello's solid single. Braun closed the doors the remainder of the route and bowed out for a pinch runner.

DODGER DOINGS: The heart of the Dodger batting order went "18 for 2" and that's the real story. Two new umpires, Hunsinger and Warren made their local debut. They all look alike to bell-cose Al Gardella, the Peekskill skipper. It seems a bit foolish, though, to watch North Atlantic managers beating their gums on balls and strikes decisions.

President "Duke" Landgraf should put a muzzle on some of the boys. The visitors reeled off two snappy double plays when it hurt the most. Kowalski's double play grounder streak to Lukasiuk so fast he grabbed it in self defense and preservation for his club. Scherger got one safety but put the wood on two long flies to left. Kerr was credited with a single when Lukasiuk made a dazzling stop of his hard shot over third but had to throw to first from a bad angle.

Big Rudy Antonetz, with a pair of hits and walks, gave signs of emerging from a protracted slump. Red Seddon or Bob Curtis tonight's pitching choice. Get there early. The field events should be worthwhile.

Women Keglers Win $48

Checks totaling $48 have been received as the Kingston Women's Bowling Association's share of the prize fund in the 1947 state women's bowling tournament in Syracuse.

The Mayorettes, Emerick Ladies' League champions, took down the bulk of the amount with $24 for 15th place in the Class A team event.

In Class A doubles, Rose Schatzel and Marge Jansen finished 38th for $6. Evelyn Dolson and Dot Rawling, 52nd and 69th respectively, each collected $4. In Class B doubles, Doris Wolf and Rita Frederick were 342nd for $4.

In the Class A singles, Elita Gindor was 102nd for $2 and Marge Jansen was 176th for $2. Doris Wolf finished 497th in Class B singles for $2.

THE WEEK-END HASH: Duffers the world over will rejoice over the 30 1/2 inch putt Sam Snead blew on the 18th green of the National Open playoff against Lew Worsham. . . . It was a cruel blow for a topnotch golfer who had waited 10 years to erase the bitter memory of a similar incident when he took an "8" on the 72nd hole to lose the Open crown. . . . It is heartwarming for Mr. Average Golfer to note that even the mightiest can blow those short ones now and then. . . . Worsham is being given credit for some slick strategy in demanding a measurement on the 18th green but the sympathy of golfdom is with Slamin' Sammy, the long-hitting Virginian, who twice has been cruelly frustrated on the brink of his great achievement.

Paul Taylor, of the Dodgers, saw the Poughkeepsie club of the Colonial League in action Sunday and returned with two impressions that are not hard to understand. . . . Buddy Van Horpe is the best all-round ball player on the club, and Dick Willested has plenty of "swifft". . . . Van Horpe, former darling of municipal stadium crowds, is batting at a .305 clip and fielding sensationally. . . . The DUSO League Council, in spring session in Liberty last week, issued the startling communique that Kingston High had won the 1947 DUSO baseball pennant. . . . Newburgh sportsmen and civic circles (ordered retiring Coach Everett. Stevens a tremendous sendoff last week. . . . ## Hofbrau Gains Third Victory To Tie Morgan's Give City League baseball fans a couple of strong armed youngsters like Artie Barnes and Jack Watzka as the pitching attraction and they'll jam the Athletic Field on any given night.

They did it again yesterday, when Lou Provenzano's Hofbrau tossers defeated Stauble's Bakery, 4 to 1, to gain a second place tie with Morgan's Restaurant, a half game behind Chez Emile and Jones Dairy.

Barnes, the swarthy Hofbrau right hander with the tooth paste ad smile, throttled the Bakers with a pair of singles, while the Brews got only three off Watzka, the apple-cheeked right hander who rates as the No. 1 tough luck man in the circuit.

Had justice prevailed, the contest would have wound up in a scoreless deadlock, since neither hurler permitted an earned run. Barnes fanned six and Watzka had four strikeout victims.

Break Game Apart
Hofbrau broke the game apart with three unearned runs in the bottom half of the sixth when Barnes and Watzka were moving along at a 1-1 pace, after Watzka had forced in the tying run by hitting Francello with the bases loaded.

Jimmy Secreto singled to right field to open the fateful sixth. Felipe, who committed three errors, fumbled Stoll's double play grounder and Secreto who had stolen second, scored. Felipe made another two base error on C. Francello's boulder. Knauer reached first on a fielder's choice and Stoll scored the third run on Gorsline's sacrifice.

West Shore seeks its first victory tonight, opposing the Knights of Columbus at 8:15. Jackie Buchanan and Bob Haslan are the probable starters.

House Upholds Tax Bill Veto to Kill Issue Completely

Washington, June 17 (AP)—The House today upheld President Truman's veto of the $4,000,000,000 tax reduction bill, thus killing it finally and completely.

The vote was 268 to pass the bill over the veto and 137 against. Thus it was two votes short of the two-thirds majority necessary to pass a law over the President's disapproval.

When that count turned up on the roll call, Republican Leader Hallett of Indiana demanded and obtained a recount, but no votes were changed.

Voting to override the veto were 233 Republicans and 35 Democrats.

Supporting the President were 134 Democrats, two Republicans—Carl Anderson of Minnesota and Hull of Wisconsin—and the American Labor member, Marcantonio of New York.

Applause broke out on the Democratic side as the vote was announced.

The House action means the Senate will not even vote on the issue of overriding the veto.

It means, too, that Republicans have an issue they already have made clear will carry them prominently in the 1948 presidential campaign.

Truman Declares Universal Training Military Necessity

Says Weakness by U. S. Now Would Raise Fears Among Small Nations

Princeton, N. J., June 17 (AP)—President Truman said today that universal training is a "military necessity" and when weakness by the United States would raise fears among small nations that it is abandoning "world leadership."

Uncertainty as to the future course of America, the President said, might weaken the resistance of free and independent nations to "the encroachment of totalitarian pressures."

Speaking under the elms before Princeton University's historic Nassau Hall in a ceremony in connection with the institution's bi-centennial celebration, Mr. Truman, who received an honorary degree of doctor of laws, said the United States cannot undertake alone the task of building "a new and orderly world."

The President was one of 36 persons to receive honorary degrees at the conclusion of a long academic procession in which gowned delegates marched.

The purple hood of the laws degree was slipped over the head of the President after the degree had been conferred upon Chief Justice of the United States Fred M. Vinson, Governor Alfred E. Driscoll of New Jersey and Field Marshal Viscount Alexander of Tunis, governor general of Canada.

General Dwight D. Eisenhower, chief of staff, who accompanied the presidential party on the special train from Washington, and Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, chief of naval operations, also received the honorary degrees of doctor of laws.

"Even though we are contributing generously and wholeheartedly," Mr. Truman said, "no single nation has the means to set the world right. It is a job of all nations to do together."

"Generosity of impulse and abundant good will," he added, "must be supported by strength behind peace-loving nations."

A crowd of 6,000, made up of students, old graduates, professors and their families and townspeople heard the cap-and-gown Chief Executive's claim that the program he advocates not only will make the nation's youth better equipped for service, "but better mentally, morally and physically."

The President used his private portable rostrum especially constructed for outdoor appearances. It is equipped with five microphones—one for television, two for radio networks, one for the newsreels and a fifth for the public address system.

Gets Last Rites

Cohasset, Mass., June 17 (AP)—At his own request, Mayor James M. Curley of Boston today was given the last rites of the Catholic Church. The 72-year-old former governor of Massachusetts, received the rites from the Rev. Thomas Devlin, pastor of St. Anthony's Church in Cohasset. In a brief bulletin, his attending physician, Dr. Edward Schott said: "He was very restless and nervous and much concerned over his condition. He requested the priest and received the last rites of the Catholic church." Curley faces a jail term of from six to 18 months and a fine of $1,000 on federal charges of mail fraud.

Newkirk, G.O.P.

has been most active in Boy Scout and Girl Scout work. Ladies and gentlemen, I sincerely believe that the people of Kingston have had enough of the local Democratic city administration I am convinced that on election day the people are going to make a change.

There will be many problems that must be solved by the new Republican mayor. I know no one more qualified to do that, job than the man I am about to nominate.

I have known this man for many years. I worked closely with him in the Common Council for four years. I know his sterling character and his many fine qualities. I know that he is thoroughly qualified and has what it takes to do the job that must be done.

I know that under his leadership clean, sound, efficient honest government will be restored to this city.

Delegates, it is a pleasure for me to nominate for office of mayor of the City of Kingston, my good friend Oscar V. Newkirk.

The nomination of Mr. Newkirk was seconded by several delegates including Walter H. Canitz of the Second ward who himself had been mentioned by friends as a possible candidate for the office. Mr. Canitz said he had known Mr. Newkirk for many years and knew him to be a man who could and would serve the city well.

He urged the delegates to go out and support the candidacy of Mr. Newkirk and said he was sure that when the votes were in next November the city would again have a Republican mayor.

Former County Treasurer Herbert E. Thomas also seconded the nomination of Mr. Newkirk and spoke of the experience which Mr. Newkirk had gained in city affairs while serving on the Common Council. This experience he said would be of tremendous advantage in tackling the job of mayor and Mr. Thomas pledged his own wholehearted support "at any time or any place" to Mr. Newkirk.

One Ballot Is Cast

There being no further nominations the unanimous ballot of the convention was cast for Mr. Newkirk and Alderman Victor Rein of the Twelfth ward and Nellie Book of the Fifth ward were named a committee to escort Mr. Newkirk to the floor.

Mr. Newkirk was greeted with applause as he took the platform.

Charles O'Connor, former deputy county clerk, and at present executive vice-president and treasurer of the Home-Seekers Safe Deposit Corporation of this city of which Charles Turck is secretary, then placed the name of Mr. Turck before the convention for the office of alderman-at-large. Mr. O'Connor, from the Eighth ward, said he had known Mr. Turck since the past 17 years and knew him to be a man of ability and integrity.

Turck Is Nominated

The name of Mr. Turck was placed before the convention by Charles O'Connor. His speech follows:

Delegates to the Republican City Convention:

There has been much discussion recently about why not let the young men have a chance for important political office.

This year the Republican party is giving the young man his chance. The Republican candidate for mayor is young and vigorous. I now wish to nominate a young, wide-awake and live-wire young man for the office of alderman-at-large.

The young man I am about to nominate was born and bred in good old Kingston Point. I know him well. I have been associated with him for the past 17 years in the Home-Seekers Savings and Loan Association, of which I am an officer and he is a valued employee.

From long observation and close association I know him a clean, living, conscientious, honest and intelligent young man with the highest ideals. He has his own ideas for the betterment of this city and they are good ones. I know that he is thoroughly competent to fill the high office to which I will nominate him.

He is a veteran of World War II, having served in the U. S. Navy.

He has always been interested in baseball and other sports. He played shortstop on the Colonials and about 12 years ago because he was a good shortstop had a try-out with the Rochester Red Wings.

He was athletic officer of the local American Legion Post the year in which the Kingston Post baseball team won the championship of the city league. He now plays third base on the Boulevard-Gulf team of the City Baseball League. He is at present the athletic officer of the Loyol Order of Moose.

Delegates, my candidate is clean-cut, dependable, intelligent, energetic and trustworthy. He will make the kind of a public official worthy to succeed his illustrious predecessor, John Schwenk. Ladies and gentlemen, it gives me pleasure to nominate for the office of alderman-at-large my close friend and business associate, C. James Turck, known to all as Jimmy Turck.

James Murphy of the Fifth ward seconded the nomination, saying that he had known Mr. Turck all his life and knew him to be a man who could and would ably fill the important office of alderman-at-large.

Thanks Delegates

Nominations were closed and Thomas Finnerty of the Fourth ward and Mrs. Sarah Schick of the Thirteenth ward were named a committee to escort Mr. Turck to the platform where Mr. Turck thanked the delegates for the honor which had been given him and pledged, when elected, to do all possible to see that the policies of Mayor Newkirk were carried out. He pledged his support to the policies of Mr. Newkirk and said he would do all in making Kingston a clean, efficient and wide-awake city and concluded by saying that he knew with the support of the members of the Republican party both himself and Mr. Newkirk would be elected next fall.

Chairman Connelly then presented to the delegates the candidates recommended for county office at the Republican convention held last Saturday.

Candidates Presented

Edward E. Murray of Shawangunk, candidate for the office of commissioner of public welfare was presented as a man of "unusual ability, able and hard thinking." Mr. Connelly called attention to the importance of the position, especially now that the City of Kingston has been incorporated in the county wide welfare department. The need of a competent, business-like man was most important now as "through the office of public welfare there is handled approximately a million dollars of public funds."

Mr. Murray spoke briefly saying that he realized the responsibility which went with the office and as a member of the Board of Supervisors and as chairman of the board he had become familiar with the complex duties of the position. Now with Kingston City a part of the County Welfare Department the responsibilities had increased but he had accepted the nomination for the position of Commissioner of Public Welfare with a hope that he could fulfill the duties and carry on the job "to your liking."

He asked that the members of the Republican party hint their support and aid that was elected he was confident that there would be no need for anyone to "find fault" with the manner in which he would administer the duties of the office.

Coroner Jesse McHugh of Wallick, candidate to succeed himself, this presented and said he sought the support of the Republican party as well as the county and city to devote his attention to the office which he considered a most important one.

Sheriff George C. Smith was also presented by Chairman Connelly and Sheriff Smith said he would continue to give to the office his best efforts and he hoped that he would be able "to do justice to the job."

He pledged that he would work "hard" for his own election and give his utmost in support of the other county candidates and do everything possible for the election of Mr. Newkirk as mayor and Mr. Turck as alderman-at-large. Sheriff Smith predicted that if all delegates unanimously agreed in the county went out and worked there would be no doubt as to the final result on election day.

Frederick Ahlers presented a resolution naming Herbert Thomas, Frank O'Reilly and Edward Bonese as a committee to fill vacancies in the county board of supervisors. The resolution was unanimously approved.

Senator Wicks Speaks

Before adjourning the convention Chairman Connelly called upon Senator Arthur J. Wicks, Republican county chairman, to address the convention. Mr. Connelly said Senator Wicks had served the people of this district so well since he became a member of the State Senate in 1927 that he had been named to one of the most important positions in the Senate.

Senator Wicks said he had come to the convention as a "spectator" and had listened to the speeches of acceptance with great interest, particularly that of Oscar V. Newkirk and he had come to the conclusion that the convention had named the "right man for the right position."

Senator Wicks said he felt sure after listening to the speech of acceptance that Mr. Newkirk "knows what the dominant issues of the campaign are, and I feel he has the courage of his convictions and will meet the issues head on."

Senator Wicks congratulated Mr. Newkirk on his statement on the "one dominant issue" and said he felt sure that Mr. Newkirk had taken the right step forward to determine whether Kingston is to continue cater to the "gambling element or whether good citizens, like you, are to rule."

He said that question and that responsibility rests with the voters of the city. Mr. Wicks also congratulated the convention on naming Mr. Turck as its candidate for the office of alderman-at-large and said he felt sure that when the votes are counted on election day it will assure the people of the city that "the old pennant of the Republican Party will again fly over the city hall on January first, 1948."

In concluding Senator Wicks said he was glad to see so many young people among the delegates and he was delighted to see young men being named for office. These were men of ability and experience, men of integrity and men who "had no alliance with sinister characters."

Credit to Party

Mr. Wicks said both Sheriff Smith and Supervisor Murray were a credit to the party, men who had displayed in the past their ability and he predicted a "clean sweep" at the polls next fall for the members of the Republican Party. He urged all to continue their interest through the campaign and to "go out and tell the story of the candidates to the voters."

office of Mayor and to the city which pays my salary and whose full-time servant I shall be.

I am confident that a great majority of the people of this city think it is time to make a change.

Asks Women's Help

I am asking for and depending upon the help and support not only of the members of the Republican party, but on the help of all of the women of Kingston and upon the support of those members of the Democratic party who are openly critical of what has been going on in this city, and upon the help and support of the independent voters who want clean government restored to Kingston. With these elements of our population behind me, I am confident of victory and also confident that good government will be restored in our city.

vention County Judge John M. Cashin and District Attorney Louis J. Bruhn were presented.

In closing Chairman Connelly asked the continued support of all delegates and urged that they go out and work for the election of the entire Republican ticket.

One of the most popular men in organized bridge in the South is Milton Vernoff of Miami Beach, Fla., a member of the real estate firm of Salmon and Vernoff. He has acted as tournament co-chairman for several years, and our members attending Florida tournaments have found it very convenient to have a real estate man as co-chairman. We leave our housing problems up to Vernoff.

He won the Southeastern regional individual championship this year, in which a record-breaking entry of 96 players participated. To defeat the contract on today's hand, Vernoff did the next thing to trumping his partner's ace, which of course he could not do at no trump.

In response to his heart bid, his partner made the natural heart opening. I presume that many players without thinking would put the seven of hearts on North's king, but not Vernoff. He realized that in order to bid two no trump and then three no trump, West had to have at least three hearts to the queen, therefore North's king must be a singleton. So he overtook his partner's king with the ace, even though it established two heart tricks for declarer. Then he shifted to the jack of diamonds.

You can see what happened. Declarer could lead a small heart from dummy and finesse the trump. But he could cash eight tricks away, because as soon as Vernoff got in, he would continue the diamond.

A marriage of June 15, 1896, was that which united Elma Hammond of Krumville to Charles A. Bush of The Vly. The officiating clergyman was the Rev. Lewis F. Piper, pastor of the Shokan M. E. Church, and witnesses were Dr. George Van Gansbeek and Walton Davis.
